

Tucson Interfaith HIV/AIDS Network

TIHAN

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR: SCOTT BLADES

Scott Blades helped found the Tucson Interfaith HIV/AIDS Network (TIHAN) in 1994 as a means of supporting the religious community to address the growing crisis of HIV affecting our community, and the accompanying issues of religious homophobia. TIHAN's mission of HIV education and support has continued, but its programs have grown and adapted to respond to changing needs. Today, TIHAN's programs and volunteers provide support to people living with HIV, as well as continuing to work to end the stigma of HIV, increase understanding and dialogue, and engage more people, organizations, and faith communities to a compassionate response.
